1. ABOUT The General Secretariat of the Organization of American States

GS/OAS is the central and permanent organ of the Organization of American States (OAS). Through its Department of Human Development, Education and Employment (DHDEE), GS/OAS supports OAS member states in creating policies and executing programs that promote human capacity development at all educational levels. By enabling formative opportunities to citizens, the DHDEE strengthens democratic values and security under the framework of regional integration. The DHDEE does this: (i) by supporting the efforts of OAS member states to improve the quality of and equity in education; and (ii) by assisting the citizens of the Americas in realizing their full potential by giving them access to knowledge and skills through training that improves the standard of living for individuals, families and communities in the region.

2. ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

The University of Oregon (UO) is a comprehensive public research university that was founded in 1876 and committed to exceptional teaching, discovery, and service. It is one of just two schools in the Pacific Northwest selected for membership in the prestigious Association of American Universities, a consortium of 62 leading public and private research institutions in the United States and Canada. UO is renowned for its research prowess and commitment to teaching. UO strives for excellence in teaching, research, artistic expression, and the generation, dissemination, preservation, and application of knowledge.

3. ABOUT THE AMERICAN ENGLISH INSTITUTE

Since 1978, The American English Institute (AEI) has been a leader in English language teaching, research, and service on the UO campus and around the world. The AEI, as a unit of the College of Arts and Science (CAS), serves the educational mission of the UO through scholarship, English language instruction, and English language professional training. The AEI champions the University's mission of internationalization and is a leader in helping achieve the University's goals for diversity and student success.
